Yesterday the new law abolishing the office of county collector took effect. Accordingly County Treasurer Lynch moved into the collector's office in the capitol building, while J. D. Spencer vacated.

The Eastern Building & Loan association of Emery county, N. V., filed a copy of its articles of incorporation at the office of County Clerk Dunbar yesterday. Charles Boyd has been appointed agent of the company in this state.

The state land board held a session yesterday and approved some selections of land. The board also decided that three acres of land worth less than $15 per acre will not be selected, as it would be of practically no benefit to the state.

A car load of ore was received from the Dexter yesterday which shows remarkable values in both gold and silver. There are two distinct lots in the shipment, one showing 20 ounces in silver and 20 ounces in gold to the ton, and the other showing 10 ounces in silver and 10 ounces in gold. This is a great showing for the Dexter.

Iron County Record: J. P. Burton, leader of the Parowan silver band, was in town yesterday attending to business of the association. Mr. Burton informed us that he will be in attendance with his players as a uniformed band at the Salt Lake Jubilee. Uniforms have been ordered and all preparations made for the undertaking. They will make a creditable representation for the county.

A wheelman in crossing Second South street at the intersection of Main, met with a very severe accident last night. In crossing the car tracks, the wheelman, throwing the rider head first on the cobble stones, the external injuries were a large laceration above the right eye and several small bruises about the head. The unfortunate cyclist had been removed to Smith's drug store.

J. R. Maine yesterday sent a written communication to the Herald stating that he had made any claim that recovery of his had been held at the court house or that he had been mistreated in any way. While his statement that he had no ground for complaint is entirely correct, the fact is, as stated in the Herald yesterday morning, he visited the court house and then called upon Sheriff Lewis, making complaints, further than that, the sheriff visited the court house, but found nothing worthy of any action on his part. Mr. Maine's explanation fails to explain.

Postmaster Threlkelt is very much exasperated over the act of a young vandal, Prince in the neighborhood of Seventh street and River street. When the carrier of that district opened the box at the corner, he found the contents of a package of letters, the letters of the dead body of a man and a lot of dirt, which had been thrown into the box. The carrier of the carrier elicited the name of the guilty boy, and the postmaster immediately sent a letter to the carrier, asking him to see to it that the carrier will be sent after him, and he will be taught a lesson for his delinquency.

DEFEAT APPROPRIATION

FOR DECORATIONS FOR THE PIONEER JUBILEE CELEBRATION.

Mayor's Veto of the Contract for Sprinkling Wagons Unanimously Sustained—Heath Gets the Contract for Extra Sprinkling—Communications, Petitions and Miscellaneous Business Transacted by the City Council.

Councilmen Stewart, Allen and Lloyd walked out of the council chamber last night rather than assume the questionable responsibility of voting for the appropriation of $1,500 for the purpose of decorating the capitol building and Main street intersections for the Pioneer Jubilee.

Usually the absence of two or three councilmen for a night is not noticed, but last night it made a big difference, for the gentlemen referred to walked out of the room, the council was forced to adjourn for lack of a quorum.

The first little piece of business occurred outside the council chamber. The sergeant-at-arms walked leisurely out and was met by the retiring members and was asked by the retiring members to go out to arrest them and bring them back. They immediately came to the conclusion that the sergeant-at-arms took refuge among the shrubs and afterwards were noticed hiding behind large trees.

HOW IT CAME ABOUT.

The circumstances causing the enactment of the force were as follows: The committee, created by the joint resolution of the city and county, to decorate the capitol building and Main street intersections for the Pioneer Jubilee, had been organized and the committee had been organized and the committee had been organized.
